Excellence in Education Under the Gospel

We are having a great time with our Wacky Wednesday's until Christmas break! Each week a class determine the 'wackiness' of the following week. Today was hat day and we have some great hats being worn and displayed! Thank you to the grade 5/6 class who chose that theme. Next week, the grade 3/4 class has decided on a theme of 'ELVES'. Have some fun and we look forward to seeing 'elves' next week on Wednesday! The classes will be assigned points by student participation participating/total number (so percentage of 100%) Just before Christmas break, we will announce the winning class! Good luck everyone!

We encourage all parents to participate in the conferences to support their child(ren) in school! The confirmation times will be sent home in the student report cards on Friday, Nov. 19th.

Pictures orders are due soon! On one of the proofs, there is a portrait ID and an access code to use when you go to mylifetouch.ca to order your child(ren)'s photos.
